

I am opposed to having the LPFM taking priority over FM translators. My favorite station K-LOVE might be forced off air if this happens. This station serves San Antonio in many ways, including a way to hear about activities and concerts going on in our churches or area, and this station not only lifts up our spirits, but encourages. It would be devastating to this city if the most popular Christian music station couldn't be tuned in for all areas.